It Couldn't Be Done!

They said it couldn't be done. You know them, don't you? The nay-sayers, the glass half-empty folks, the ones walking around with their faith tanks sucking fumes.

A little more than a year ago, Coastal Bend Emmaus was on it's death bed. We were suffering from severe amnesia in the remembering our purpose department. Through God's grace (and SWTX) we were given a second chance. A near-perfect (according to the observer) Women's Walk was held last October and we've had 2 well-attended gatherings.

Your Board has prayed together, disagreed together, came to consensus together, worshipped together, witnessed miracles together and trusted God together. Now it is time for the election of a new Board to carry the vision forward into the future. 3 Walks are planned for later this year, and 4 are planned for 2013. The need for leadership is great. Are you being called? Are you hesitating in answering the call? Do you think the task is impossible? It can't be done, can it?

If you are interested in serving on the Board, please e-mail me at cbemmaus@gmail.com.

Determine to Make the Commitment!

Luke 9:23 ... And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

When missionary Dr. David Livingstone was working in Africa, a group of friends wrote him: "We would like to send other men to you. Have you found a good road into your area yet?" Dr. Livingstone sent this message in reply: "If you have men who will only come if they know there is a good road, I don't want them. I want men who will come if there is no road at all."

There's a big difference between just being interested in doing something and actually making a commitment to doing it! Just being interested allows us the freedom do a thing only when our circumstances permit. But making a commitment to do that thing means accepting no excuses and no reservations - it means putting aside our fears and reservations and moving forward till we see the end result! Dr. Livingstone was looking for results, and this required men of commitment!

Let's make some commitments! Our Lord, our families, our jobs and our congregations are awaiting us!
